

FOUNDATION SEED

REGISTERED SEED

CERTIFIED SEED

What is Seed Certification?

Seed certification is an internationally recognized program to produce seed of known identity, germination, and purity.

Seed producers must meet specific seed certification standards, including planting eligible seed stocks, passing field inspection, and laboratory testing.